Dump opposition snowballing

Antioch's Coalition of Concerned Citizens (CCC) announced the huge success of the first stage of their campaign to inform village residents of the possible hazards of adding 70 acres to the present Antioch dump site.

A committee of CCC members distributed an informational pamphlet last weekend to virtually every home within the village limits.

Preliminary response from residents was of great concern and expressed disapproval of the dump site expansion. The next stage will be to circulate a petition so that Antioch residents will have an opportunity to voice their opposition to dump expansion.

The petition will state "We, the undersigned Antioch area residents, oppose expansion of the landfill owned by Waste Management, Inc.

We feel expansion could cause many problems including contamination of drinking water supplies, declining property values, and a lack of balanced community growth."

During the Feb. 17 CCC meeting, Ron Griesheimer, (Republican) candidate for the state representative, voiced his absolute opposition to the dump expansion and stated he would make his feelings known in a letter to

Gov. James Thompson, sighting possible pollution of village and area drinking water supplies.

The coalition had been urging concerned citizens to attend the March 4 meeting of the Antioch Planning Commission but the village board has postponed that meeting after Waste Management Inc. requested that it be held off until a time after a report by the newly hired consultants could be considered.

Tightness predicted in revenue sharing spending

The residents of the village of Antioch will have the opportunity to give their input on the allocation of the revenue sharing funds available to the village of Antioch for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1982 and ending April 30, 1983, at a meeting at the village hall, at 7 p.m., on Monday, March 15.

The amount of revenue funds available to the village for that fiscal year is approximately $60,000.

According to Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz, the village has already received its usual request for funds for area charitable and community organizations but this year the village might have to utilize more of the money for village expenses because of the shortness of funds.

Revenue sharing funds are usually used by the village to help subsidize some of the cost of capital improvement expenses such as village maintenance, road repair and to purchase needed village vehicles.

Muth hearing set March 11

A preliminary hearing will be held in Lake County Circuit Court, on March 11, on charges brought by the Antioch Police Dept. against Marilyn Muth, 34, Tinley Park, of bilking 15 Antioch residents of approximately $2,000 in a Christmas toy scam, at a subscription party, on Nov. 10, 1981.

Muth, who took down-payment on toys supposedly she would supply through national mail-order houses and never delivered the toys, posted $2,000 cash bond, in Antioch on Friday, Feb. 19.

Reportedly, Muth faces similar charges in Cook County where she is also out on a cash bond. In Cook County it cost Muth $2,500 for bail.

Teller foils money order forging try

An alert teller at the State Bank of Antioch, spotted an altered postal money order that local residents attempted to deposit in their bank account.

When the money order was produced at the bank's drive-up window, the teller notified her supervisor and the Antioch Police Dept. arrived on the scene and questioned the would-be depositors.

According to Antioch Police Lt. Tom Fisher, the depositors are not being held or charged at the present time because the police have accepted their story that the money order was altered by another party who gave it to them in payment of money owed them.

The matter is presently under investigation by United State Postal Authorities.

Fisher said that he had been told by postal authorities that this scam is spreading nationwide. The forgery takes place after the purchase of a one dollar money order which is altered to say $101 or $201 etc.

Hartog trial March 1

Kenneth Hartog, 20, Trevor, who pled not guilty to a charge of reckless homicide in the death of Antioch High School teacher Anna Helene Kugler, was to appear before Judge William Block on March 1.

Hartog was driving the truck that allegedly struck and killed Kugler as she jogged in the dark on North Ave. in Antioch, early one morning last fall.

Hartog reportedly told Antioch Police that he had been smoking marijuana and drinking in the hours preceding the accident.

Having failed to pass a breathalyzer test after the accident, Hartog has also been charged with driving while intoxicated.

Congratulations to Antioch's four wrestlers who qualified for the state wrestling meet.

Antioch wrestlers won the conference and the district and were third in the sectional tournament.

Antioch's four state qualifiers represents the most competitors Antioch has ever sent to the state finals.

Marotta, Kennedy, Haley arraignments on hold

The arraignment of Frank Marotta, 35, Lindenhurst and Allen D. Kennedy, 47, Antioch, on charges of violating the concealed firearm statute of the state of Florida, set for Monday, March 1, in the Lee County felony court of Judge Thomas Reese, has been continued until Monday, March 8.

Marotta and Kennedy were arrested by the Ft. Meyers' Airport Police on Jan. 31, in conjunction with the U.S. Customs' confiscation of the plane they were flying that reportedly belongs to William Zeigler, Round Lake.

The plane is still being held by customs officials for investigation of the marijuana residue found on board.

This was the second time that a plane owned by Zeigler was involved in a drug traffic investigation.

In April, 1981, a Cessna owned by Zeigler was confiscated at an airport in West Palm Beach, Fla., carrying marijuana valued at almost $500,000.

The two men arrested on the scene of the spring plane confiscation, Robert Hoffman, 33, Lake Villa and Woodrow Wilson, Colorado, both convicted of drug trafficking and released on probation, implicated William Haley, 40, Antioch, as the person who offered them $40,000 to fly the marijuana from Columbia, South America.

Haley's case was set for disposition on charges of drug trafficking, on Monday, at 9:30 a.m., on Monday, March 1, in the Palm Beach County felony court of Judge Edward Rodgers, but has been put on hold, pending the disposition of cases that proceeded it on the judge's calendar.

According to a representative of the Palm County Circuit Court, Haley's case could go before the judge anytime this week.

Media coverage of a reported Lake County drug probe, involving Haley, has been headlines in newspapers from Antioch, to Chicago, to Florida for the last month.

Chamber anti landfill

To Village Of Antioch:

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce And Industry is opposed to annexation or expansion of the current landfill site operated by Waste Management, Inc.

Our opposition is based on a survey of our membership and a lack of conclusive data at this writing that would prove positive there would be no adverse effect on the business or industry in the village of Antioch now, or in the future.

We are hopeful that the village will support our opposition to the landfill site issue which we believe to be vitally important to the future of Antioch.

Seniors don't have it made by DONNA DeFOSSE

Being under 30 years old, I do not think much of being a senior citizen, much less retired.

After my visit to Antioch's Senior Center many of my misconceptions have been changed.

I have always thought senior in this case meant someone who had it made.

No more financial, family or work worries, just relaxation and fun living the rest of their lives.

For the more active seniors I envisioned someone people would search out for, for answers and opinions.

Why not? After all, more than 60 years of surviving in this world, who else would be more deserving of the respect and understanding of the younger citizens?

What I found has left a profound impression on me and I hope that in sharing my experience, you will want to become more informed and involved on your own!

The people at our Senior Center are extremely thankful to the Antioch community for the center.

For them it has become a home away from home, family, friend and community all in one.

Why? Because, most of us who are young and not thinking of, or believing we will sooner or later reach the inevitable day when we will become seniors, have forgotten our elders.

We have put them out of our minds with the easy excuse that we are too busy with our own children, work and activities.

They have given us most of what we have today and in return we have given them loneliness.

This, in my opinion, is the main reason they enjoy and need their senior center.

The senior center is sponsored by Catholic Charities which takes care of the inside work and employment, sponsorship and funding, if needed.

Our town provides the outside work which includes: maintenance (internal and external) garbage, gas, electric and whatever it takes to keep the center open.

The operating budget at the center counts on the fund raising that the seniors themselves do.

There is only one person at the Antioch Senior Center who is employed (by Human Services) and that is Noreen Thomas whose job is dedicated to organizing and managing the center, much like that of a small business coordinator.

Noreen says her job is not only experience in managing, but in life itself.

The seniors I talked to, not only appreciate Noreen for her hard work and efforts, but love her as a part of their senior family.

College Night planned

The College of Lake County and participating area high schools invite interested students and their parents to attend a College Night on Tuesday, March 9 from 5:30 to 9:30 p.m. The program will be held at the College of Lake County, 19351 West Washington St. in Grayslake.

Admission representatives from numerous two and four year colleges, universities and trade schools will be available to answer questions concerning their programs of study, admissions requirements, housing, financial aid and other topics of interest.

Last year approximately 120 representatives attended. A list of this year's participants is available in Antioch High School's guidance office.

Booths will be located in the main lobby, Blue and Orange Courts, library atrium, and in some classrooms. Counselors will be available to answer questions.

Students should know the following information: class rank, percentile rank, and ACT or SAT scores.

Further questions may be referred to Antioch High School counselors.

Revenue sharing $62,000

Antioch Township will hold a public hearing on the spending of revenue sharing funds, at 7:30 p.m., on Thursday, March 11, at the Antioch Township Hall.

Antioch Township Supervisor Jim Fields said that the township officials have made no preliminary decisions on the manner in which the $62,000 in available revenue sharing monies will be allocated.

The township invites all township residents to attend the meeting and give their input.

Bonding Resins and Your Teeth

Fillings are usually held in teeth by the shape of the cavity filled. However, with a new technique called bonding, tooth-colored resins can be made to stick to the outer surfaces of teeth as well as within cavities. This has made possible many exciting new developments in dentistry.

Children with badly cracked front teeth once needed crowns. Now these teeth can often be repaired in one visit at much lower cost. For certain types of cavities, the amount of drilling needed can be greatly reduced when bonded resins are used. Oddly-shaped teeth can be eliminated — without any drilling at all. Furthermore, the filling material is held more tightly against the surface of the tooth, making it less likely that the fillings will fall out, or that the tooth will decay again.

ANTIOCH JAYCEES and Jaycettes attended an Auxiliary Winter General meeting held in Harvey, Ill., on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 19, 20 and 21.

Highlights of the meeting (attended by almost 400 men and women from chapters across Illinois) included forums for local chapter presidents, informational displays by the IJA State Chairman, and a joint autism forum.

The Antioch Jaycees and Jaycettes received honorable mention for conducting the most outstanding haunted house project of the quarter.

The Antioch Jaycees and Jaycettes in attendance were Bob Goetz, Chuck Spillner and Barbara Spillner.

GREAT IDEA for Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts and groups of children and adults alike would be to give Chris Kellogg of Antioch's McDonalds a call and make arrangements in advance for a tour.

Cub Scout Pack 192's Blue and Gold Dinner, held Feb. 21, was a big success and an extra thanks goes to a very special lady, Joanne Aschbacher, the awards and Blue and Gold chairman with help from another special gal Barb Westlund.

I have trouble preparing meals for six and Joanne made it possible for 190 people to walk away happy and full.

Again thank you, Joanne and Barb! Entertainment for the afternoon was by Cricket the Clown and a puppet show by Chuck Gasperini.

Added to the excitement of the days awards and dinner was the singing of songs, lead by that well-known vocalist Ken Jandula, also father of Cub Scout Brian Jandula and hubby of Den Mother Tenza Jandula.

(Maybe there was a little twist of the arm, but I doubt it!)

Everyone enjoyed getting involved. Den Mothers there were: Den One, Tenza Jandula and Carol Paddock, assistant; Den Three, Rae Ann Ellis; Den Five, Donna DeFosse; and Den Seven, Alice Golding.

The invocation prior to supper was given by Brother Vincent from the Abbey.

When I think about it

Modern men refuse to be left holding bag

by GLORIA DAVIS

Since the days of the victorian reticule men have made fun of women's purses. Art Linkletter went so far as to investigate these female sanctums and reveal their contents for the world to see on national television.

During these public perusals, Linkletter discovered that women carried everything but the kitchen sink, declaring that each and every article was an absolute daily necessity.

And the only reason that Linkletter never found a kitchen sink hidden away in one of those compartments is probably that the purse manufacturers have yet to market a hand-bag big enough to carry one, at least a large enough one that is also fashionable.

You see, I'm sure that somewhere, sometime, some female has wished that she had one with her.

A few years back the designers of men's accessories put forth a strong push for men's purses that quickly died because a minority of smart male city-dwellers were the only ones who took advantage of this practical bit of marketing.

The average American male just wasn't ready to brave the flack that his fellows would most undoubtedly toss his way should he suddenly appear sporting a hand-tooled leather shoulder bag, not even long enough to give this bit of practicality a chance.

No he'd rather poke a hole in his back pants pocket with his comb, or bag-out the pockets of his suit jacket or sports coat with sundry paraphanelia.

How often have you seen an otherwise perfect masculine picture destroyed by a lump on the thigh made by a handkerchief, some change and a key ring?

My better half, typical sexist that he is, wouldn't be caught alive carrying one of Christian Dior's clutches, yet he expects me to cram his glass-case, a few cigars, his keys and his wallet into my tiny evening bag because he doesn't like the lumpy-look.

Is it that modern men don't have enough confidence in their masculinity to be practical?

The early Romans, not only wore the same kind of skirted togas worn by their women, but they sported strapped pouches across their chests because those togas had no pockets. I've never read that Cleopatra doubted Marc Anthony's masculinity.

Those swashbuckling pirates wore knickers and hose besides flouting suede shoulder-bags and Sir Francis Drake is said to have turned a certain real-life queen on (no pun intended).

Davey Crockett and Jim Bowie were just two of our famous pioneers that carried buckskin bags and I don't notice a "swishing" sound in either of their musical biographies.

Look at Truman Capote, he carries a purse, yet he's invited every place. The aprons worn by all the world famous chefs have never caused a housewife comparison.

With all the unisex styles that lead today's fashion parade, many of the guys say that they don't mind the fact that their western gear differs from the girl friend's only in the shape-drape, because the gals are copying them, not the other way around.

Yet women wore pleated skirts long before the revered Scottish Kilt came into fashion and there's not a tight-fisted, hard drinking Scot alive who isn't proud to wear his clan's colors, not to mentioned the skirted Irish, English and Greeks.

O well, I guess you can't make a silk purse into "now" gear. I'm sorry, I'm sorry--!

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Congratulations to Antioch High School's fine wrestling team. Not only did they take the conference and district titles but made a fine showing in the sectionals. Good luck at state-go Sequoits!

Our Future Farmers of America reporter, Tami Vandermeer, tells me that this enthusiastic group is busy studying cow contest pamphlets and learning all about etching.

They are also discussing speakers to have at upcoming meetings.

Their last meeting was at Tom Wells house and their next one will be at Andy Burkhardt's at 7 p.m., on Monday, March 8.

The second annual ethnic day presented at Emmons Grade School, Friday, Feb. 26, had the students and teachers out-doing the fine job they did on last year's China Day.

The replicas of the Parthenon, the racing carriage and the darling Greek costumes, worn by the students, made Greek

Day a huge success!

The afternoon program, especially the dance done by the kindergartners, was a standout.

I hear that our former Miss Antioch, Dawn Flashner, is continuing to demonstrate that brains and beauty can charmingly go hand in hand, by making the President's List at Drake University.

Antioch also has a dynamic brother and sister duo in Jennifer and John Belucci, who both made the Dean's List for the fall semester at St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind.

Ditto for Tim Havilland who did the same at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

How about Cathy Aschbacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Aschbacher! This double threat, not only was inducted into the Sigma Theta Tau Sorority, an honor sorority for professional nurses, but she too made the Dean's List, as a senior in nursing at Northern Illinois University.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

Dr. R. A. Sona,

OPTOMETRIST

CONTACTS ANDS THE NATURAL LOOK

Millions of people wear contact lenses today. Contact lenses correct vision problems, in most cases better than glasses do. But they have the advantage of giving your face a "natural" look. Unless you tell them, others would never know you're wearing corrective lenses.

They do require more care than glasses. And, like glasses, they should be prescribed and fitted by a professional. Because they float on the tears over the eye, however, extra care must be taken in keeping them clean and germ-free.

Your eye specialist will show you how contact lenses should be applied and removed. Both your eyes and your contact lenses should be checked periodically by your optometrist.

If you follow these rules, contact lenses will serve your corrective vision needs even better than glasses. Contact lenses give more natural vision (especially peripheral) because they are closer to the eye (in fact, in "contact" with the cornea) while glasses must be worn about a half inch away from it.

Sequoits play their worst, best against Stevenson

The Sequoit cagers will face the Northwestern Suburban Conference Champions, the Grant Bulldogs, when they host the Antioch Regionals, starting Wednesday, March 3.

The Sequoits will face Grant at 6:30 p.m., having ended their regular season with an overall 11-14 record and a conference record of six wins and eight losses.

Sequoit Coach Roger Andrews says that if his players just keep playing the same good ball they have been, they could give the Bulldogs some competition.

"We've been playing good ball, we just haven't won," said Andrews.

Antioch's last two games seem to be perfect examples of Andrews' description, the Sequoits bowing to Woodstock, 63-52, on Tuesday Feb. 23, and also to Stevenson, 67-64, on Friday, Feb. 26.

"We played a good solid, steady conservative game against Woodstock," said Andrews.

Antioch lead the scoring at half-time, but was on the bottom end of it by the finish of the third period.

With Woodstock leading by two points, Antioch had a good drive, but failed to sink the shot and then fouled on the rebound.

Woodstock took advantage of this, made the free-throws and continued to widen the lead with more free-throws and good floor shots.

Bob Gatti and Mike Gofran lead Antioch's scoring with 12 points each.

"We played a horrendous first quarter," Andrews said of Friday's game against Stevenson, blaming the three point loss on this and the Sequoits' free-throw weakness.

Andrews continued to comment that the Stevenson game showed the Sequoits both at their worst and best.

Steve Sheelo lead the scoring for Antioch with 17 points and Gatti was close behind with 16 points.

Gatti also was Antioch's leading rebounder with 11 off the boards.

With 11 seconds to go, Antioch was only down one point when the Sequoits missed their shot, fouled on the rebound, and with two seconds left, Stevenson won the game with two successful free-throw shots.

and now the owner of Maginot Funeral Home in Antioch, will be the guest speaker at the March 9 meeting.

Tickets will be sold for the March 23 St. Patrick's Day Party. Cindy's Restaurant in Lindenhurst will cater a corned beef and cabbage and a chicken lunch — which ever the people prefer. Be sure and attend the March 9 meeting to make your reservation.

Cecile Mann, president, is calling a board meeting for Monday, March 8, at 10 a.m. at the Antioch Area Senior Center. All board members are urged to attend. Anyone wanting to have lunch there that day should call the center by March 5 to make their reservations. The Catholic Charities serve lunch there on the days that AARP does not meet there.

Glen Peterson sold tickets for a bus trip to the Golden Rondelle Theatre in Racine to see the "Living Planet," "To Be Alive" and "To Fly" on the big screen. From there they will go to Nino's for lunch and then to the Regency Mall to shop.

Two buses will transport the members on March 30. They will leave from the water tower in back of McDonald's at 9 a.m. If you would like to go, see Glen at the March 9 meeting.

Dancing will be from 8 to 10:30 p.m. at the Kenosha Woman's Club in Kenosha, on Sheridan Rd. and 60th St.

Caller and emcee for the evening will be Ted Palmen of Bristol. Rounds and lines will be cued by Jerry and Betty of Kenosha.

Refreshments will be served following the dance. For further information please call (414) 857-2513.

Chaircouple Nick and Dorothy Teister have promised a most enjoyable evening for all who attend. Cocktails, snacks (including a "late night" snack of hot beef sandwiches at 11:30 p.m.) and dancing to the music of the Manhattan Skyline will complete the evening.

Tickets are available at the St. Peter Rectory and the three Antioch financial institutions. The donation for tickets is $7.50 per person, and all proceeds will benefit St. Peter School. For more information or for reservations, call the Rectory, (312) 395-0274.

Bingo was played with 17 of the members winning a dozen eggs.

Arlene Brumbaugh made the Valentine favors that were on each table. Someone from each table took the red vase with red paper hearts in them home. They were very attractive. The center piece at the head table was truly beautiful with its red flowers and large white candle in the center.

If Mickey Babcox gets to be sheriff, the machine politicians will have Lake County law enforcement right where they've always wanted it.

The machine is running Mickey Babcox against Tom Brown for sheriff of Lake County. And the machine is running scared. Fact is, some of this group, namely Babcox's closest supporters, have gotten caught with their hands in a bear trap. A bear trap full of drugs. The F.B.I. and other Federal authorities are in the midst of a grand-jury investigation. Many believe it will turn out to be one of the biggest scandals to hit Lake County in decades.

THE NARCOTICS CONNECTION.

According to January 17 and February 3, 1982 Chicago Sun Times articles, "more than a dozen white collar residents, including businessmen and one banker" along with "a prominent Lake County politician" are suspected of involvement in "narcotics trafficking".

Along with Babcox, many of these people are directly involved in Lake County machine politics. So you can see why, now especially, these machine people are trying to get control of the sheriff's office.

And you can imagine what kind of sheriff's office it would be with Mickey Babcox running it.

Mickey Babcox, a machine politician with no law enforcement background. A two-time loser in previous attempts to become sheriff, who's admitted that he'd turn the day to day running of the office over to Chick LaMagdeleine, who did one of the more uninspired jobs in Lake County when he was sheriff.

Needless to say, we need professional law enforcement in Lake County now more than ever.

We need to re-elect Sheriff Tom Brown. A man who's proven his independence and beat the machine in 1978 when he defeated their candidate for sheriff.

TOM BROWN IS LEADING THE FIGHT AGAINST CRIME.

Just look at what he's already accomplished.

Narcotics arrests up 28% over the previous administration. Drug seizures up 350%. Burglary arrests numbered over 425 in his first three years. Vandalism arrests increased 138%. Arson arrests went up 450%. Most importantly, despite a 32% increase in population, under Sheriff Brown's leadership the crime rate decreased 22.2% in unincorporated Lake County.

TOM BROWN IS A LAW ENFORCEMENT PROFESSIONAL.

This is the result of having a dedicated law enforcement career specialist at the reins. One who knows what to do and does it. One who has graduated from a total of 23 law enforcement schools. Tom Brown, a law enforcement professional.

No wonder the machine wants Babcox. A puppet whose strings would be pulled by the very organized elements he'd be sworn to eliminate. But there's no way we can let that happen. Not when our families' safety and the future of Lake County are at stake.

Support Professional Law Enforcement. Re-elect Tom Brown Lake County Sheriff.
